NORTH CAROLINA—THE LATE TROUBLES—IMPORTANT DECISIONS.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 1.—The Justices of the Supreme Court in the Ku Klux cases now on trial have unanimously decided that a member is responsible for the acts of any other "Klan" in any other county, though he had possessed no knowledge of the act done until after its commission.—The counsel for the defense admitted the legal proposition. This decision has thrown great consternation among the Ku Klux and their sympathizers hereabouts, and will tend to the complete disruption of this iniquitous conspiracy throughout the State. The testimony discloses the perpetration of the most fiendish outrages on colored and white Republicans for mere political purposes, and that the order was 40,000 strong in this State over a year ago. Its strength now is not known.

The above is a special dispatch to the Tribune from this city, gotten up by Holden or under his direction, which grossly perverts the facts and intentionally makes a wrong impression for partizan and sinister purposes. The decision itself was sufficiently partizan and designed to be as damaging as possible to the Conservative cause and as reckless of truth and legitimate evidence as possible, yet the dispatch is still worse. The Judges did not decide, as the dispatch alleges, "that a member [of the Ku Klux] is responsible for the acts of any other "Klan" in any other county, though he had possessed no knowledge of the act done until after its commission."

The statement does not convey the idea. Mr. Boyden, the counsel for the prosecution stated, that if it could be shown that there was an organization of so called Ku Klux, in the State, and it could be proven that the purpose of the organization was to whip, maim, kill &c. and that its members were all bound to execute its orders in this regard, that every member so binding himself would be responsible for the acts of the "Klan" wherever they were committed, although he might not be cognizant of the act. It was to this proposition that the Judges and opposite counsel assented, but the Judges made no such decision, and especially did not make such a one as is above stated.

We deny that it was proven that there was such an organization in the State and that that was its purpose, or that it was proven there were 40,000 Ku Klux in the State. One or two witnesses whose credibility will be successfully disputed, stated that they understood that the Ku Klux organization extended throughout the State and that its object was to whip and murder the negroes &c. and that they had heard there were 40,000 in the State, but more credible witnesses subsequently stated that the Association with which they were connected had no unlawful or wicked design, that they did not know how far it extended and there was no proof of the number in the State.

It is also lamely false that there is consternation among the Ku Klux and their sympathizers, if by this is meant, as it certainly is, the Democrats and Conservatives. No intelligent man believes that there is such a State organization or that the object and purpose of the secret organizations in this State, was to whip, kill, &c. No such thing can be proven. A proper investigation before a fair tribunal of these cases, would knock to flinders every position taken by the Supreme Court Judges both on the Caswell and Alamance cases.

INFALLIBILITY.

The enunciation of the doctrine of the infallibility of the Pope of Rome, as adopted by the Œcumenical Council, finds a very general acquiescence in this country among the Bishops, clergy and laity of the Roman Catholic Church. In Germany, Austria and Hungary, the opposition appears to be strong, and the continuance of this opposition may result in schism in portions of Europe.

There is a singular agreement among the Bishops who have just returned from Rome, in their exposition of the doctrine as now held, in view of the fact, that a number of the Roman Catholic Bishops of the United States were said at one time to be hostile to the declaration of the dogma. Archbishop McCloskey in his response to the warm welcome with which he was received in New York, states that correctly defined it is no new doctrine of the Church of Rome, but one necessarily deduced from the principles maintained by the Church for centuries—that the laity en masse have always held to the infallibility of the Pope and that the action of the Council was necessary to give a formal promulgation to the doctrine.

FOREIGN TRADE.—According to an exhibit made up to Sept. 1, at the U. S. Treasury, Washington, the amount of imports into the United States from Foreign countries for the year ending 30th of August, 1870, was $436,006,063, against $392,792,150 of exports for the same period.—The excess of imports over exports, not including gold, was $43,213,913 against $86,215,198 for last year.

NATIONAL DEBT.—The national debt on the first of the present month, is estimated by Secretary Boutwell at $2,495,561,805,85.

THE COTTON CROP.

The cotton crop of 1869, was the largest produced in the South since 1860. It reached the large sum of 3,300,000 bales. This of itself is sufficient when considered in connection with the appreciation of greenbacks, to account for the decline in prices of this important staple. No crop is so fickle and unreliable in price as cotton, hence more speculators are broken who deal in it than in any other article of produce. For these reasons and anticipating certainly the production of a large crop of cotton and a consequent reduction below the price for which it can be made in North Carolina, we have repeatedly urged the policy of planting a variety of crops, and the consequent employment of a smaller force, as all important to our planters. The practice of making cotton entirely and purchasing all the supplies of a planter, was found to be ruinous before the war when labor was cheaper; now it will prove disastrous beyond recovery.

Before our planters in this State commence making their arrangements for another year, it is important that they understand what may be expected in the future. It is estimated by shrewd calculators that the cotton crop of 1870 will not fall short of 4,000,000 bales. This will be a heavy crop, but not too heavy to expect from the large amount planted and the large investments made in its production. If this be so, it may be expected that from the 1st of December next, prices will rule considerably lower than at present. For the sake of many of our planters who have based their calculations on high prices, we regret that this is so, but these results may have been so reasonably expected, that no one can blame any one but himself, for the result.

In a country like ours where grains, fruits and vegetables of all kinds may be produced and where cotton and sheep raising may be made profitable, it is strange that our people still persist in following the old system of cultivating cotton alone. Cotton should only be grown as a surplus crop. Every other article which adds to human comfort and required by human necessity, should be first made, then let cotton and tobacco come in as market crops.

RADICAL TRICKS.

A special dispatch to the New York World from Washington, explains the manner in which Radical statistics are obtained:

The fact has already been stated that the Radical leaders, from Vice President Colfax down, have made unusual demands upon the departments for figures to be used in the campaign to prove a vast reduction of the debt and a faithful collection of the revenue under President Grant's administration. In order to supply the demand for this information, which is always distorted to suit Republican views, extra clerks have been set to work, and the Treasury Department clerks are compelled to work at night. But not satisfied with legitimate information, the Radical leaders seem to be desperate, and are seeking to make a favorable financial exhibit by resorting to sources not thought of hitherto. The other day Mr. Colfax wrote to Assistant-Secretary Richardson and asked for a statement of the receipts from the sale of government vessels, stores, ordnance stores, quartermaster's stores, &c. Since the beginning of President Grant's administration these things have all been sold because the government had no further use for them; and will, when aggregated, be between twenty and thirty millions of dollars. Yet Mr. Colfax and party friends propose to add them to the net receipts of the government, and to argue therefrom a more thorough and efficient collection of the revenue during their administration than under Mr. Johnson. In order to supply this information within the time indicated by Mr. Colfax, an additional force of clerks has been put in the Quartermaster's Department, and they are kept at work night and day. Of course, it was never a part of the plan to specify the items of which these receipts were drawn.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR: It has occured to me that a short obituary notice of the late Chief Justice Pearson, by a competent hand, should be prepared, now that the old man has (judicially) passed away. I am aware that the other members of the Supreme Court bench "went up" at the same time, but we know nothing about them and care less. With the late Chief Justice it was different. During the war we remember he had severe attacks of that dreadful scourge—the habeas corpus—and struggled manfully through them all. This last case, though, "lotch" the old man—the disease no doubt being assisted in its ravages by such quacks as Holden, Kirk, Dick and others.

Ask some old friend of the late Chief Justice if he can't say something which will console the public now that he is (judicially) gone from among us forever.

NO RADICAL.

LARGE COTTON FACTORY.—The Memphis Avalanche says: "The people at Nashville will soon boast one of the largest cotton factories in the South. A company, with a capital of $300,000, has commenced the erection of a building for the purpose. The main building is three hundred feet long by sixty wide, and is to be four stories high. It is thought that work will be commenced about January, 1871, and that employment will be given to three hundred hands. All kinds of cotton fabrics will be manufactured, including prints."

We are pleased to announce that Prof. W. C. Kerr, the State Geologist, has consented to deliver the Annual Address before the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Association at its Fair in November next, and we have no doubt this gentleman will give our farming public an entertainment of the first order. Other distinguished gentlemen have been invited to speak upon different subjects during the holding of the fair.—Roanoke News.

THE GREAT RADICAL LAND ROBBERY.—All Germany falls short in geometric area of the public domain in the West voted by the Radicals of Congress to corporations. Yet Germany contains 45,000,000 of people.

The homesteads of a whole nation have thus been stolen by these gigantic land robbers. All the Rhine provinces about which France and Germany are contending, are a mere flea bite compared with the territory stolen from the people under Radical rule.—Albany Argus

ARCANUM AHOY.—Judge Tourgee, of North Carolina, swears that Greeley added too many ciphers to his false document about Ku Klux outrages. Greeley, in defence, declares that the paper was printed as it came from Holden. We dare say there was lying and forgery all around. None of the parties can plead good character.—Columbia (S. C) Guardian.

MILITARY CAMPAIGN IN MOORE COUNTY.

MR. EDITOR:—Since it is customary to write the history of all wars, I propose to aid in giving to posterity a correct account of the present war in North Carolina. Inasmuch as it has not fallen to my lot to witness all the movements of the troops now under the command of our present Governor and his subordinates, I shall confine myself to that part of the army which operated about me, and as the campaign has now closed, it is time for the pen of the historian to tell of the wonderful deeds of honor performed by our State Troops. It is my happy privilege to write of that part of the army which may be known as "the left wing," and whose field of operations was in Moore county, N. C. This noble band of patriots was under the command of the gallant Major H. M. Miller, the son of the justly honored and beloved Henry W. Miller, North Carolina's pride and the worthy father of a degenerate son.

This gallant corps entered Moore county on Sunday, July 31st, marching along the road just as other soldiers have always done. At Jonesboro' they rested and ate like they really had bodily wants. The point that claimed their immediate attention and demanded their service, was Carthage, the Capitol of the county. Leaving Jonesboro' late in the afternoon of July 31st, they began the pleasant march of 18 miles through beautiful sand. At night fall they actually went into camp and passed the whole night in that remarkable manner. At early dawn, aroused by the war horn, they arose and cheered, and elated with the assurance that the day had come when they should reach their destination, and cover themselves with glory, dust and perspiration, they resumed their march to doomed Carthage. And it is utterly impossible to describe adequately the wonderful prowess and irresistible onset of this gallant army when they reached the town. What the citizens of that place saw! What all the world besides did not see!! I could but think what Alexander, Hannibal, Pompey, Cæsar, Themistocles, Marlborough, Wellington, Napoleon, and other heroes have lost by having lived in the past! If Prussia and France had only known what wondrous exhibitions of military skill and ability would be made at Carthage, on August 1st, well might they have paused in their gigantic conflict, and transported all their Generals, Princes and Marshals to Carthage to learn how to conduct their war in a decent manner. Then, how we should pity the heroes yet unborn, whose chronological doom compelled them to miss this inimitable military feat!

On the noble army comes until they reach the suburbs, when they are cheered by the violent demonstrations and welcome of one whose loyalty could never be questioned. Thus encouraged and invigorated, they prepare for the great assault which must lay poor Carthage at the feet of the conquerors. The line formed and led by their valorous Major, they only await the command. Ah! momentous hour! and sight for Kings and heroes to admire! The charge begins. The whole band press on to reach the centre of the town. Through sand and dust, with trembling and tears they go till they reach the other side of the Court House, where they halted and the great work is accomplished. All resistance is gone and amid strolling men, gazing women, trotting dogs, grunting hogs and crowing cocks, the hero of Carthage took quiet possession of the town. He did more. He captured it, held it and occupied it.

This was work and glory enough for one day. The troops need rest. After making all points secure, they were marched off and went into camp to recuperate and prepare for other deeds of valor.

Giving his troops two days for rest and recuperation, on the 3rd of August, the heroic Major prepared for other work.—This was the culminating act of the campaign. Having prepared his forces, Major Miller led one of the most gallant charges on record; with much tripedation, remorse, misgiving and fluctuation of heart, he charged and captured the Sheriff's office, papers and money. He ejected the worthy and duly elected Sheriff, and had the intense satisfaction of inserting one of true loyalty and who can give any amount of security that he is entirely irresponsible.

This was glory enough for our hero. He felt that his star of military glory and immense magnitude had risen to its zenith and was shining with unparalleled splendor. It required one whole day for him to rest from this exploit and to become accustomed to his honors, and so soon as he could bear up under his weight of glory, he left the scenes of his chivalry, and began to retrace his steps; but the burden was too heavy for much progress. He only reached Jonesboro the first day, where he found appropriate quarters under the roof of one of the high bloods of that quiet village. Thence he continued his journey to Raleigh where his deeds could be properly appreciated.

Now, Mr. Editor, it has been the custom of this country to reward military merit by civil honors. Washington owed much of his popularity and his Presidential honors to this cause. Greene has his name emblazed in the names of counties in many States; and the whipped wagon driver and hero of Cowpens was sent to Congress because of military service.

Generals Andrew Jackson, Harrison, Taylor and Pierce may attribute their civil promotion to the same cause. And no one doubts that the present occupant of the White House found his way open to this desired place of eminence by his services rendered in the army. Now I do contend that some civil honors should crown the noble deeds of Carthage's hero. In the arrangement of this affair, some questions must arise, but they can be answered, and the worthy rewarded. The question arises, where shall these honors be bestowed? As it is not usual to bestow the civil honors on the field of battle, some other place than Carthage must be selected. And, moreover, the sky is too low, the horizon too contracted, the houses too small, the beds too short and the liquor too mean in Carthage for this great hero to receive his full measure of honor here in Carthage. Hence as Raleigh is the capital of the State, a place of wealth, refinement and attraction, I suggest that Raleigh is the proper place. And moreover he can there live under the constant smile of our lovely Governor.—Another question arises, what shall be the office given him and the honor heaped upon him? I am frank to confess that no civil office now in existence can meet his demands and satisfy his claims. There are many, many offices of trust, fame and profit, but they all fail to do justice to the glorious death of our hero.

Not wishing to do more than write a history, still I cannot close without offering a few suggestions on this point. It is clear that a new office will have to be created for his especial benefit. Now I have a few new ideas to suggest:

1. I suggest that the hero of Carthage be appointed dog constable of Raleigh. It is a well known fact that there are many dogs in Raleigh and they need attention. They walk, trot, run over the city and all go to market. They howl, bark and whine continually. They are busy day and night in doing mischief. They are of every size, color and species, and they positively refuse to associate together and thus recognize the great principle of social equality. They bite, fight and run mad. And many other outrageous and disloyal acts are the dogs of Raleigh guilty. They need a teacher, a leader to discipline and restrain them, and no man is so well qualified for this great and noble work as the hero of Carthage. If he should have them under his control for a short time, they would soon all become, obedient, quiet and loyal.

2. If however, this does not suit him, then I suggest that he be made the supreme ruler of the chicken cocks of Raleigh. Like all other cities, Raleigh has an immense multitude of these fowls, they are an outrageous and guilty set. Their deeds are often perpetrated in open day light. They scratch, crow, fight and do many other infamous things. Their crowing is especially disloyal. They crow in the wrong place and at the wrong time, they crow too early and too late—they are great disturbers of the peace and quiet of the city. Surely every good and loyal citizen must desire to see a loyal reformation in this part of our population. And unless some effort is made some brave heart and strong hand be employed, such an end cannot be anticipated. No heart is as brave and no hand is so strong, and that heart and hand that swept the defences of Car hage, as the whirlwind sweepeth the chaff in the morning. Then let all the lovers of bravery declare that the hero of the sheriffs office, shall reign over the cocks of Raleigh, "then what quietness there will be in the backyard and at mid-night. There will be no disloyal crowing heard within the precincts of the whole city, and parents and children alike will ever hail with acclamations of delight, the hero whose wreaths of honor grew upon the sandhills of Carthage.

But I know this proposition will meet with opposition. Some people in Moore say inasmuch as his extraordinary feats of valor were performed in their county, and for their good the gallant Major periled so much, then it becomes the citizens of Moore to do honor to their champion. They are afraid that his laurels will fade away if transplanted in Raleigh. Hence they say, let him remain where they will ever grow, and flourish and be green. Let the people of Moore adopt him as their hero, and do him honor by creating a county office for him, and it is suggested that he be made the Lizzard Catcher of the county, and that all the honor and emoluments of that high office be put upon the gallant soldier and leader of the "left wing."

It is not intended that his office shall consist of merely empty honors, and titles, but that he shall be well rewarded. Hence it is suggested that he shall draw his daily rations, which shall consist of ½ pint of meal, ½ pint black eyed peas, ½ gill salt, ½ ounce beef, with vegetables in due proportion. And added to all these he shall have the fat salary of one cent a day.

But I leave this matter undecided but shall hold myself ready to chronicle whatever decision that may be made for the promotion, exaltation and undying glory of this unworthy son of a worthy father.

HISTORIAN.

From the Chicago Times, August 17.

HUMORS OF THE WAR.

General Grant Interviewed by a Chicago Reporter—His Opinion of the Fight—How Germany may be Whipped.

The views of General Grant on the conduct of the European war are something which all the world has an interest in knowing. The enterprise of the Times was exhibited, during the late visit of his Excellency, by obtaining, at some length, the General's opinion of matters on the Rhenish frontier.

The General, in response to a question as to his opinion of matters between France and Prussia, said that neither party understood war as he understood it.

Here the reporter of the Times ventured to assert a cordial indorsement of the remark of his Excellency.

"Permit me, General," said Mr. Seamon, "to ask you to point out what you conceive to be the chief blunder of the campaign so far?"

"France," said the General, as he lighted a fresh cigar, "made a blunder in commencing war upon a people of equal size and strength. The true way to make war is to always have three to your enemy's one. An illustration of the fact was given at Shiloh. The enemy there was within a third as large as my own force. Hence, the disaster which befel me."

"But General," said the reporter, "have you no faith in manœuvring or in strategy, whereby inferiority in point of numbers can be equalized by superiority of brains?"

"None whatever. Sherman played that out in his march to the sea. You see, the Confederacy was only a shell, and that is why he met with such success. He had no opposition. My own experience proves this. In all cases where I attempted any of these new fangled operations, I was beaten."

Here Mr. Colfax, with a very sweet smile, inquired as to what the General thought should be done by Napoleon.

"My idea," said the General, "is that he should get Butler and Banks to command army corps in the Prussian forces. Then he should conscript every Frenchman that can carry a musket, and send him in. Prussia has only 30,000,000 inhabitants, while France has 40,000,000. This is a clear difference in favor of France of 10,000,000. Now let Napoleon keep hammering away at the Prussians, if it takes all summer. I am of the opinion that the superior activity of the French, aided by their chesspot, their elan, their traditions, and their superior navy, will enable them to kill a Prussian as often as they can a Frenchman. Hence it is a clear case that if Napoleon hammers away till all the Prussians are killed off he will have 10,000 left. In other words, his cat's tail is the longest."

"What is your opinion of Napoleon personally?" asked Mr. Joseph Medill.

"He is a great man. He smokes always and never says anything. He was once in humble circumstances. He was never, however, in the hide business, except perhaps so far as hiding himself is concerned."

Here General Dent broke into uproarious laughter. He afterward remarked to our reporter that he was hired to laugh at Grant's jokes; and, he added, he flattered himself he was doing a very extensive business on a very limited capital.

General Grant puffed stoically until Dent had finished laughing, and he resumed:

"Napoleon is my model. I have stood before his portrait by the hour, trying to mould my countenance into the stony inexpressiveness that characterizes his. I am not certain but that I shall imitate his coup d'etat. He rose from obscurity to be a president. So did I. He rose from president to emperor; and if I don't follow suit it will be because Congress took the trump out of my hand when it reduced the army."

"Well, now, General, tell us what you think of the Prussians," said Mr. Greenebaum.

"Don't like 'em," he responded, contentiously.

"Why not, your Excellency?"

"Well, I don't. They want office too much. Why, I have had more than a hundred thousand applications from Dutchmen for office, whose only recommendation was that they 'fought mit Sigel.' As voters, I have no objection to them. During the war they stole everything, so that a native had no chance."

The General proceeded to comment on Prussian strategy. He did not like it, he said. They were in too much of a hurry. Here, now, in less than a month they have hardly a million men in the field, which was a shorter time, he said, than he required to move his army from Fort Henry to Donelson—a distance of only thirty miles. This celerity, he remarked, is destructive, of all precedent. The Prussians have gone farther in ten days than he went in ten months when moving on Richmond.

He further thought the Prussian move a blunder. In place of going toward Paris by way of Metz they ought to cross the James River and go round by way of Petersburg. There are neither dignity nor sense in this way of rushing straight at Paris with a big army. The Prussian leaders ought to hold on and see who is going to be the next President. This making war for war's sake was not, in his opinion, the true principle of warfare. All wars should have the high and beautiful object of returning the men of one's party to Congress, and the election of one's candidate to the Presidency.

At this moment it was announced that lunch was ready, and the party broke up.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 180,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x50in; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612). I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly,
C. W. STADY.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pains upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,
JAS. M. WILDER.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours,
CHAS. H. BLOCKER

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Sir—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling hay for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully,
E. M. POOLE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly,
W. T. HOWLE.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1870.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

EXPLANATORY, APOLOGETIC AND PROMISSORY.—Owing to the change we were compelled to make to accommodate our issues to the Railroad schedules, some irregularity in the delivery of the SENTINEL to city subscribers has been almost unavoidable. This is almost absolutely unavoidable in all cases of the kind, but we think now we are about "out of the brush," and these little difficulties will now be less frequent, if not cease altogether. We are getting the machinery to run in the grooves smoothly and the wheels greased, so that everything will work properly from now out.

A NEW ENTERPRISE IN RALEIGH.—We learn that there is a new enterprise afoot in Raleigh—the organization of a musical association, to be called "THE CITIZENS' CORNET BAND," to be composed of some twenty of our musical young men, at the head of which is our well known and enterprising fellow citizen, Captain B. W. Justice. A committee of the Band will wait on the citizens of Raleigh, in a few days, to ask contributions to purchase an entire set of new instruments for the Band We hope they will meet with a liberal response.

The regular monthly meeting of Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, will be held this Tuesday evening, Sept. 6th, at 8 o'clock, at Fireman's Hall.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE FAIR.—We learn that the Executive Committee of the North Carolina State Agricultural Society have made thorough preparation for the approaching Fair, beginning Oct. 18th 1870. The premium list is large and is printed in pamphlet form, also on broadsides for distribution. They can be had on application to J. J. Litchford, Cor. Sec'y. Raleigh.

CHIEF OF POLICE MARTIN.—We had supposed that the duties of this officer were of sufficient importance to demand the constant attention of the Chief of Police within the limits of the city. A correspondent calls our attention to the fact, that the Chief of Police is frequently called upon to execute processes in Alamance and other counties and that he receives pay both for his services as Chief of Police, and as Deputy Marshal when he goes off to execute a paper, and asks if this is right? Certainly not. It is his duty to attend promptly to matters pertaining alone to his office as Chief of Police, and when he fails to do this and seeks additional duties in another office and additional pay, where it is impossible to attend to both, he should be removed from office or his pay as city officer should be deducted. We do not understand how it is that among so many hungry and needy Radicals who stand around anxious to get a job, they are overlooked and the favors of the powers that be, are bestowed upon those who hold other positions and are less needy.

A GOOD SIGN.—Since the result of the election in this State, we learn that the number of land buyers and the inquiries in regard to farms and other real property for sale, have greatly increased in the State. We have seen and conversed with a gentleman from the North, recently arrived in search of a home in this State, who says that there being now some prospect of stability and honest administration of the government, many from the North will seek locations among us. We hope to see them coming by the score and hundreds.—Our people know well the difference between the sneaking, corrupt, unprincipled, spoils-seeking carpet bagger, who comes for no other purpose than to get office and rob the people, and the industrious, upright farmer and mechanic and capitalist, who comes with an intelligent appreciation of the advantages of our soil, climate, and natural resources, with a view to bettering his own condition and contributing to the general welfare and prosperity. The latter they are ready to welcome with open hand and heart; to the former they will bid farewell without tears or regrets.

JUDGE BOND.—Judge Bond of the U. S. Circuit Court arrived here on Saturday last. It is rumored that he has been sent for by Gov. Holden & Co. to get him to upset some of Judge Brooks' action and afford some "aid and comfort" in his distress. Bailey and Holden and others have pretty well taken possession of the Judge since he has been here, and it is said that Bailey has drawn up a paper for the purpose of securing an opinion from Judge Bond adverse to the ruling of Judge Brooks.—Others say that he is to bring Bergen before him on to-day on a writ of habeas corpus.

THE INJUNCTION.—It is rumored that the State authorities will apply to Judge Settle or Judge Rodman on Wednesday to dissolve the injunction upon the Public Treasurer, forbidding him to pay public monies on account of the State Troops. A more just and necessary injunction was never imposed. To remove it ignores the law of North Carolina and the Constitution of the United States. Congress has never authorized the enlistment and equipment of a State army of North Carolina. The General Assembly has authorized the employment of State militia to enforce the law, &c., but there is no law to raise State Troops by enlistment and to employ citizens of Tennessee to perform military duty in this State.

We learn that in spite of the injunction, public monies have been paid out to claimants on account of these State Troops. We are informed that money was paid some of the troops or officers on Monday last.—It is said that the payment has been made by a new appointee in the place of young Jenkins.

THE NEGRO INSURRECTION IN JEFFERSON COUNTY, GA.

A correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle furnishes that paper with a full history of the recent negro disturbance in Louisville, Jefferson county. On the arrival of the troops from Atlanta the white citizens, who had assembled from Jefferson and the adjoining counties to protect Louisville, returned to their homes, leaving the civil authorities with the military to arrest the ringleaders of the mob, by whom the jail was broken and threats made to burn the town and massacre the white inhabitants. Some twenty of the rioters have been committed to stand their trial at a special Court ordered by Judge Gibson, some on charges of inciting insurrection and some on the simple charge of riot. The correspondent says:

The commitment trial (which has been going on since last Thursday) has developed some facts of interest to every good citizen in the State, and to which I would ask their SPECIAL ATTENTION—1st, every negro engaged in the demonstration on Saturday, and every one engaged in the riot on Sunday (and by the way, it is worthy of remark that the officers and men of each day were entirely different and from different parts of the country) showing perfect organization and discipline, belong to what is called "Union Clubs;" 2d, that these clubs have three cardinal principles or rules, viz.: (A). Whenever a white man owes a negro, the negro is not to apply to the Courts for redress, but to the Club, who are to collect an armed force and make reprisals to the amount of the debt. (B) Whenever a member of any one of the Clubs is in danger or in prison, the others are sworn to go to his assistance and relief. (C) When the time for the election arrives, they are to leave home armed, concentrate at some given point near the polls, one-half stack their arms and go to the polls; if they are refused the franchise on account of non-payment of taxes, or for any other reason, they are to return to their reserve, take their arms, all march to the polls and vote if they have to fight for the privilege. Cudjo, the leader in this county, who was in Atlanta a few weeks since (and who says he received the constitution of the club and instructions from Governor Bullock) told them these clubs were organized in every county in the State, where there were many negroes, but that in this county they were far behind the balance of the State. Another principle of the clubs in this county is a general division of property. It will be seen that the late riot grew out of their obeying the second rule of the club, viz: "Whenever a member of any one of the clubs is in danger, or in prison, the others are sworn to go to his assistance or relief." The negro imprisoned for shooting the mule, was a member of the club, and before the jail was broken, they all admitted that not one of them knew him, but their President had ordered them to come to his relief, and they were bound to obey under penalty of death.

The commitment trial has developed another significant fact, viz: in every instance their demands were made on the civil officers, before any attempt at violence; 1st, on Saturday the order was to apply for the keys of the jail to the Chairman of the Commissions of the town, and in his absence to the jailor; 2d, on Sunday the demand for the keys was again made of the Chairman, and being refused by him, the jail was broken, though the jailor was present; 3d, the note sent by the rioters, threatening to burn the town, if Cudjo was molested, was addressed to the Chairman of the Commissioners. Cudjo, when warned of his danger on Sunday, replied that he was acting under orders from headquarters, and that he was perfectly willing to surrender himself to Gov. Bullock that night. It is believed he was on his way to Atlanta, to place himself under the Governor's protection, when he was arrested in Macon on Thursday morning.

AN INCREDIBLE HORROR.—We were told Saturday that a gentleman reached the city the day previous, from the neighborhood of Sunbish, bringing word of a terrible affray which happened down in that region. The story runs that a tobacco grower had a number of hands employed in erecting a tobacco house, and that on the ground floor of the building he had slaughtered a sheep, using an axe and block to behead the animal. Two little boys, sons of the planter, came about the building, when the smallest one expressed a desire to be instructed in the mode of killing the sheep. The larger boy told him if he would place his head on the block he would do so. Boy No. 1 complied with the condition, and No. 2 fulfilled his promise by severing No. 1's head from his body. This so horrified a portion of the workmen, who were putting a large roof timber in position, that they let it fall. Unfortunately, it fell where another party of men were at work, killing ten of them and wounding four others.—Wheeling Intelligencer.

VILLIFICATION OF PRESIDENT DAVIS.—The notorious E. A. Pollard has commenced anew his base calumniation and villification of Jefferson Davis. In a recent number of the Baltimore American we have read one of his articles against Mr. Davis. For heartless ridicule, malicious misrepresentations, scurrilous abuse, deep seated malignity, gross vituperation and vindictive hatred, this article is ahead of anything we have yet seen from Pollard's pen. It is characteristic of the man—foulmouthed, loathsome, and utterly shameless. It will not affect Mr. Davis' character. That is above the shafts of such miserable calumniators and traducers. It will only serve to show in darker and more abhorrent colors the character of the abandoned wretch who takes out a polluted existence by the detraction of those the latchet of whose shoes he is unworthy to unloose.—Tar Southerner.

DESIRABLE PROPERTY.
I WILL SELL OR EXCHANGE FOR GOOD City property one of the best Cotton and Grain Farms in Eastern North Carolina. The tract of land contains about twenty-two hundred acres, of which seven hundred acres are cleared, under fence and in good condition for cultivation. A large part of it is in cultivation this year. The soil is fertile, neighborhood good, labor cheap and plentiful. The dwelling house is large and commodious, with all necessary and convenient outhouses. The Stables, Barns, Houses for laborers &c. are good and numerous. This farm lies immediately on navigable water and has passing through it good water power, where there is now a Grist and Saw Mill and Cotton Gin. The place is desirable for conducting large mercantile operations, and is a beautiful location for a town or colony. A Steamer passes every day, and touches at the wharf two hundred yards in front of the dwelling. The surrounding county is rich and improving, and settled by intelligent, refined and prosperous people.

A PROCLAMATION,
By His Excellency, the Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, S. pt. 5th, 1870.

WHEREAS, In obedience to section 20, chapter 148, of the laws passed by the last General Assembly, the Governor of the State, assembled in the office of the secretary of State, on Thursday, the 1st inst., at 12 o'clock, M., the Council of State and opened the votes returned for Attorney General, given at the election held on the 4th day of August last, and did add up the number thereof;

And whereas, It is found upon such, the enumeration, that the Hon. William M. Shipp did receive eighty-seven thousand, six hundred and forty-eight votes, and the Hon. Samuel F. Phillips did receive eighty-three thousand, four hundred and twenty-seven votes; (the vote of the county of Caswell not having been returned; and the vote of Gates county, to wit: for Hon. William M. Shipp, 4,356 and for Hon. S. F. Phillips 3,744, not being enumerated for apparent error in the return.)

Now, therefore, I, W. W. Holden, Governor of the state of North Carolina, do declare that the Hon. William M. Shipp, of Mecklenburg county, is duly elected Attorney General of said State for the unexpired term of the Hon. W. M. Coleman late resigned, to wit: until the 1st day of January, 1873, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this the 5th day of September, one thousand, eight hundred and seventy, and in the year of our independence ninety-fifth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Governor.

By the Governor:
J. B. NEATHERY, Private Secretary.

TELEGRAPHIC,
Monday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—A dispatch from Washburne to the state Department says the Empire is ended. The excitement at Paris is intense.

Paris dispatches of Saturday, midnight, report a vast crowd gathered, but no disorder.

The prisoners captured at Sedan were over 120 000.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept 5.—The Telegram's special Paris dispatch, dated on the 5th says that the Empress Eugene having received assurances from the Prussian government that she will not be treated as a prisoner, has consented to join her husband and son, who also surrendered with his father at Sedan. She will leave for Prussia as soon as her arrangements can be perfected.

General Trochu will at once be made temporary Dictator and Paris will be defended to the last.

FOREIGN.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 3.—The Prussians demanded the surrender of Montmedy. The garrison refused.

CARLS RUHE Sept. 3.—The beliefs of Strasburg are divided by a rise of the White There is great suffering and destruction of property.—The Cathedral is certainly partially destroyed.

AMSTERDAM Sept. 5.—A dispatch reports that the Prince Imperial instead of escaping to Belgium surrendered with the Emperor at Sedan.

PARIS, Sept. 5, 3 P. M.—It is now impossible to reach the Corps Legislatif, owing to the enormous crowds surrounding the building. It is reported that a vote of Dechéance has been carried by yeas 185 nays none. The people are wild with excitement and are rushing through the streets bearing placards with the vote of the Corps Legislatif inscribed thereon. Shouts of "vive Republique" are heard on all sides. Regiments passing into the city are received by the populace with deafening shouts of "vive La Ligue," "vive Republique." The National Guard reversed their arms as the regular troops pass, as a sign of amity.

The scene is one of indescribable excitement. Rumors of all kinds are in circulation and it is impossible to ascertain their foundation. But one sentiment seems to be paramount, that is, resistance to the invasion. "All the nation now to the rescue" is the shout of the people and the troops join in enthusiastically. The Guard National say that order must be preserved. The people evince but little desire to create trouble. All seem overjoyed at the vote of the Dechéance.

LATER.—Crowds are beginning to tear down the Imperial arms on the fronts of shops. There are fears that this may lead to serious trouble as the national Guard are not inclined to permit these disorders.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, September 5.—Flour dull; Wheat nominally lower; Corn heavy; Cotton steady. Uplands 12½; Orleans 12¾; Spirits Turpentine 39½ to 40; Rosin very firm at 1 95 to 2 00.

Monday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 5.—The State Department has advices that a republic has been proclaimed from the Hotel de Ville. The people still hold possession of the Chambers. Deputies Favre, Gambetta, Simon, Picard and others compose the Provisional government. Rochefort was liberated by the people.

Baron Gerolt has a dispatch from his Government that McMahon disavowing power to treat for peace, his Government being at Paris, the war must continue.

PENNSYLVANIA.

POTTSVILLE Sept. 5.—The Locomotive "Sivatara" exploded killing one and fatally injuring another.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, Sept 5.—Telegrams from all parts of the world continue to pour in. Nearly all protest against foreign interference with the German adjustment of peace. It is reported that McMahon is dead.

Early this afternoon the crowds disarmed and broke the swords of all the police who did not respond to the shouts of "vive Republique."—The Boulevards are almost impassible on account of the crowds. The national guard are keeping order.

BRUSSELS Sept 5.—It is stated that Lodge is selected as the Emperor's place of detention.—Several of Eugenie's maids of honor have arrived here.

PARIS, Sept. 5, 5 P. M.—Kiratrey has been appointed Chief of Police and Etienne Aragon, Mayor of Paris. The flags were lowered on the Tuileries. It is said that the Empress has departed, and the people are rushing through the Tuileries.

Placards are posted with the words "death to Thiers."

The members of the Provisional government are said to be Favre, Gambetta, Simon, Kiratry, Picard, Pelsin and Emry, who were appointed by the Corps Legislatif after the majority had withdrawn, and are in session at the Hotel de Ville. Henri Rochefort, who has been released, is assisting at this meeting.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—Half past six. The crowds continue to tear down signs containing the Imperial arms and medal. The highest stories were climbed to tear the word "Imperial" from the The tres. The police no longer are seen on the streets.

Trochu in answering the crowd said, he had taken an oath and as an honest man, he could not break it. The Chamber must answer the people at midnight. The crowds that assembled before the Corps Legislatif building, shouted that the Emperor having fallen into the hands of the enemy, now was the time for the people to rise and chase out the invaders. The Corps, however, adjourned till to-day with assurances that the day should not pass without some determination worthy of France.

Later in the evening a large crowd which assembled on the Boulevards Bonne Nouvelle, parading and shouting "Dechenance" and "Vive La France," were charged by the police who used fire arms. It is reported that some citizens were mortally wounded. At an early hour this morning, great crowds were in the streets. The Journals are sought with extreme avidity. The popular agitation is very great and the feeling against invaders singularly unanimous.

LONDON, September 5.—Paris last night still doubted the ill news though profoundly moved and anxious. The Government, if informed, gave no intimation of affairs, merely expressing doubt as to the positions of McMahon and Bazaine, but admitted it had tidings through Prussian sources.

The members of the Provisional government establishes at Paris are Trochu, Simon, Gambetta, Pelletin, Favre Terry, Kerary, Comieux and Picard. The Provisional government are in office without the slightest dissent. All the ministers are acting with energy. Orders have been issued for the immediate formation of colloseal armies.

The Senate is suppressed and the Corps Legislatif is dissolved. The Provisional government is to permanent session in the Hotel De Ville under the Presidency of General Trochu.

MADRID, September 5.—The Gazette contains the municipal code for Port Rico, and announces scattering fights with Carlists, who fight as they fly from the country. The Peninsula is otherwise quiet.

BUCHAREST, Sept. 5.—A crowded meeting, adopted a resolution that Germany refuses mediation or intervention of the powers, also incorporating Alsace and Lorraine as a portion of Germany, and compensation for the expenses of the war; also that Germany must now belong to one nation, with one army and one parliament. That those are the only securities by which she can retain the peace of Germany and Europe.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE
THE PAIN KILLER.
After THIRTY YEARS trial, is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues, from persons of the highest character and responsibility. Physicians of the first respectability, recommend it as a most effectual preparation for the extinction of pain. It is not only the best remedy ever known for Bruises, Cuts, Burns, &c., but for Dysentery or Cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapidity of action. In the great cities of India, and other hot climates, it has become the Standard Medicine for all such complaints, as well as for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, and other kindred disorders. For Coughs and Colds, Canker, Asthma, and Rheumatic difficulties, it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing testimony, to be an invaluable medicine. Directions accompany each bottle.

BANKER CIGARS.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the Havetown smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Greeley to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

Pink Hardie is Agent for the Bankers, and says he has a letter from Mr. Mehegan, saying that the stock in them is better than ever. Go and try them.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must place it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates above which most of the Mutuals, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the additional privileges of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior untill her to occupy.
